

Second Dance Repertory Review

A presentation that features works of emerging artists and collegiate dance programs. The creation of this performance is to target invitations to dance critics and writers that would represent magazines, web sites and various publications from across the Bay Area to "review" the works presented. The goal is to present an array of choreography with depth, integrity and substance for a positive "Review."

Third Dance Repertory Extravaganza

An adjudicated performance featuring new and diverse works from Bay Area high schools and dance studios that have been selected by a professional committee. The mission of the Extravaganza is to enable young artists to gain technical training through master classes and mentoring in choreography and performance by working side by side with professional artists. Young artists gain further performance experience in an esteemed and respected venue, initiating them into the life of a dancer in the professional realm.
