Dance Repertory is honored to welcome

our future Alliance Partners:

San Francisco Dance Center

Alonzo King's LINE5 Ballet Training Program

LINE5 Ballet School

In 2009-2010, Dance Repertory enters a

Retreat Year to accomplish the following:

- Obtain non-profit status
- Develop a Board of Directors
- Create and implement a long-range strategic plan
- Expand our fundraising efforts through grants and corporate sponsors
 - Enhance our marketing and outreach into the artistic community
- More programs, training and choreography feedback for professional dancers
- Implement new nationwide master trainers, choreographers and senior educators from San Francisco and New York

Please note we will not be presenting a major production at the Cowell Theater in 2010. Our next major production is March 2011. Mark your calendars!

But don't worry! We will still be holding all educational events/classes/workshops and pairing with other groups as "Buddies." We will be expanding these programs with additional training and choreography opportunities with feedback!
